From the moment Marcus Mosely, Will Sanders and Khari McClelland stepped up to the mic, they realized they had something very special going on. Singing gospel in hometown churches in Texas, Chicago and Detroit gives The Sojourners an authentic edge: seriously soulful sounds. Their most recent album was nominated for a Juno Award, and won the 2011 Western Canadian Music Award for Best Outstanding Canadian Christian/Gospel album.

Calvin Dyck: 'The Golden Violin'

Monday evening
January 21, 2013
7:30 pm
First Mennonite Church

Violinist Calvin Dyck and piano accompanist Betty Suderman trace the history of the "golden violin", an instrument crafted by Dutch master violin-maker Johannes Cuypers in 1807. The first stop in the musical journey is Amsterdam, followed by Dusseldorf, Venice, Paris, New York and modern-day Canada. Along the way, Calvin and Betty perform traditional classics from Mozart to Brahms, and the more modern music of Copland and Gershwin. Calvin will charm you with his personality, delight you with his music, and entertain you with stories, costumes and props.

Red Chamber

Sunday afternoon
April 14, 2013
3:00 pm
First Mennonite Church

Red Chamber straddles the traditional and contemporary music scene, playing ancient Chinese string band music blended with bluegrass and jazz fusion. These virtuosic performers set the stage on fire with hot licks, power and passion. Red Chamber takes its inspiration from traditional Chinese repertoire seldom heard in the west. The quartet creates a unique sound, performing repertoire that spans centuries, from the Tang Dynasty (618-907) to modern compositions. This is an exciting ensemble of masterful musicians, bringing a new sound on ancient instruments to the concert stage.
