

Pieces of Eight

Montreal Guitar Trio

Tuesday evening,
October 1, 2013
7:30 pm
LDSS MPR

The boys are back! Audience members remember the trio as one of the most popular performers in our first seven seasons. We're thrilled that they will open season eight. Their music blends Cuban, flamenco and tango influences with The Beatles, classic movie music and progressive rock. Three guys plus three guitars equal exponential energy and fun. This will be a hot ticket. Don't miss MG3!

Woody Holler Orchestra

Monday evening,
October 21, 2013
7:30 pm
LDSS MPR

Woody Holler grew up hearing the songs of the cowboy. His influences include the crooning styles of Gene Autry and Roy Rogers, the rustic yodeling of Jimmy Rodgers, and the danceable swing of Bob Wills and the Texas Playboys. Woody developed his lyric yodel on the wide-open spaces of the Canadian Prairie. The Woody Holler Orchestra's members are Winnipeg's finest folk and jazz musicians. They create a western swing style that Woody defines as "jazz from the saddle".

Ken Lavigne The Road to Carnegie Hall

Friday evening,
November 22, 2013
7:30 pm
LDSS MPR

Ken Lavigne is a singer, composer and consummate entertainer. Joined by his five-piece band, he charms audiences across North America with ballads, show tunes and operatic classics. He will take you on a riveting journey, retelling his dream of singing at Carnegie Hall with the New York Pops. Against all odds he found a way to live out his dream, singing on the world's most prestigious concert stage. His story is told with songs and entertaining anecdotes. Ken Lavigne embodies the spirit of the underdog: audacity, tenacity and finally triumph.

Fung-Chiu Duo

Presented under the auspices of
Richard Paul Concert Artists

Sunday afternoon,
January 19, 2014
4:00 pm First Mennonite Church

Janelle Fung and Philip Chiu are a young, hip musical team. You will hear thrilling repertoire in the 'four hands, one piano' form, and come away from the concert having had a great time. Their original transcriptions include Stravinsky's Firebird, Bernstein's West Side Story and Prokofiev's Romeo and Juliet. They are young, articulate, stylish - and love showing off. Janelle and Philip introduce each piece with intelligence and humour. Be ready to be entertained and charmed by these two young pianists.

'Strings and Swing' featuring Lizzy Hoyt and Jesse Peters

Wednesday evening,
February 12, 2014
7:30 pm LDSS MPR

Canadian pianist and crooner Jesse Peters brings his vocal colour to pop and jazz standards. Fiddler and vocalist Lizzy Hoyt ranks among Canada's top instrumentalists. Teaming up with bassist Travis Switzer, the ensemble takes you back to the era when many classic songs were crafted. Lizzy and Jesse bring jazz, soul and Celtic rhythms to tunes arranged for vocals, piano and strings. Get ready to enjoy their 'Favourite Things' – with strings and swing.

Wind Quintet of the Prince George Symphony Orchestra

Sunday afternoon,
March 16, 2014
4:00 pm
First Mennonite Church

We present members of the Prince George Symphony for the third time in eight seasons. Wind Quintet members have delighted patrons at Ohh Chocolate in Prince George, and at other concerts around the city. Hear PGSO principals Simon Cole (clarinet), Erica Skowron (oboe), Don Bond (flute), Lynn Giesbrecht (bassoon) and Laszlo Klein (French horn) in a matinee performance of selections from the classical repertoire.

Veenesh Dubois in: Under the Mango Tree

Saturday evening,
April 12, 2014
7:30 pm
LDSS MPR

This award-winning Canadian one-woman play is about a daughter's love and yearning for her father. The story is based on memories and experiences of the play's creator and performer, Veenesh Dubois. The show takes you on an emotional journey from the South Pacific to Canada. Timal is a precocious girl who relishes life in her small Fijian village. Then one day her father tells her he is leaving to find a better life for the family, going to a far away country called Canada. Timal cannot go, but her father promises he will write. What happens next will leave you breathless.
